

02 DAY TWO

PSALM 92:1-8 Prayer

A psalm for singing our God-song

---

We were created to sing Your praise, Lord.

It is Your glory when we are fully alive to You,
 others,
 and the world.

We awaken into Your love every new day
 and we go to sleep into Your faithful care each night.

O, to be fully alive,
 to be fully aware of Your continual presence
 and declare Your goodness to our world!

All the instruments of our lives . . .
 our work and love,
 our creativity and persistence,
 our triumphs and failures . . .
 are all harmonious parts in the symphony we're invited to play for You.

---

When I consider how great You are
 I cannot help but play my song as fully as possible.

Of course there are men and women who refuse to join the song,
 who are oblivious to the God-saturated world we live in.

If You lead me to them
 and bring them to me,
 I'll make room for them in my song.

I will play and sing until they pick up the tune
 of their own unique song.

Together we'll be fully alive,
 offering healing music to a world out of harmony.

And our songs will ring out Your name
 to the corners of the universe.

Let it be. Amen.

For reflection: How will I "sing" my God-song today in my work and love, my creativity and persistence, my triumphs and my failures? I offer to God my intention to sing my song. And I pray for the grace of awareness to others in my life-world with whom I can sing.
