

On November 3rd, the Central Intelligence Agency will be hosting an information session regarding exciting positions available. There will be two sessions held from 12:00-1:00 pm and from 5:00-6:00pm in the Regents Room on the 3rd floor of the Oklahoma Memorial Union. Both sessions will cover the same information, so you only need to attend one. Below I have included more information on the CIA. You will not want to miss out on this exciting opportunity! Please let me know if you have any questions.

Learn about the exciting positions available right now within the National Clandestine Service of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Are you a U.S. Citizen?

Do you have good interpersonal, writing, and briefing skills?

Do you have a foreign language or are willing to learn one?

Have you traveled, lived or worked overseas?

Are you interested in a diverse work environment with opportunity for growth?

Do you want to serve your nation and be part of something great?

Do you have one or more passports?

Are you interested in foreign events and current affairs?

If you answered "yes" to the above, then you may be qualified to join a dynamic team of government professionals, who are helping to safeguard the United States against a myriad of threats.

Visit our website: www.cia.gov

The CIA is very interested in both Graduate Students and Under Graduates

The CIA's National Clandestine Service is the cutting-edge of American Intelligence, providing vital information needed by US policymakers to protect the national security interest of the American people. Agency representative will cover a broad range of topics to include the Agency mission, potential career opportunities, the on-line process, an overview of the security and medical screening process and provide a question and answer period. Students are welcomed to bring a resume.